

Qualitative Research and Learner Development

Table of Contents

Qualitative Research and Learner Development . . . . .	2
Masuko Miyahara, International Christian University
Patrick Kiernan, Meiji University
Chika Hayashi, Seikei University
Researching the Relationship of Learner Emotion to Language Learning: Issues and Challenges . . . . .	7
Nicole Gallagher, Toyo University
Serious Leisure: A Diary Study of Self-directed Learning and Motivation in Eikaiwa . . . . .	20
Daniel Hooper, Kanda University of International Studies
Exploring the Dual Role of Advisors in English Learning Advisory Sessions . . . . .	41
Ryo Moriya, Waseda University (graduate student)
Exploring the Development of Learner Autonomy from a Postmodern and Social Constructivist Perspective: Prioritising Voices . . . . .	62
Christine O’Leary, Sheffield Hallam University
Qualitative Research Methods in Second Language Learning: Review and Evaluation . . . . .	85
Clare F. Kaneko, Keiwa College
Storytelling for Learning and Healing: Parallel Narrative Inquiries in Language Counselling . . . . .	100
Leena Karlsson &amp; Fergal Bradley, University of Helsinki Language Centre
TEN Qualitative Research Dilemmas and What to Do About Them. . . . .	117
Gary Barkhuizen, University of Auckland, New Zealand	